

ARCHIVE 1979 / PEACEFUL REVOLUTION

DIGITAL LOG 1484 / TERRORIST OPERATION

The Revolution of '79 vs. The Terrorist Operations of '25 (1404)

An Analysis of Differences in Nature, Methods, and Goals

Similarity in Name, Contrast in Nature

Certain anti-Islamic Republic media networks attempt to legitimise the 1404 violence by framing it as a simulation of the '57 Revolution.

However, a precise examination reveals these two events are in complete and total opposition.

DECLASSIFIED

The violence against innocent people in 1404 was executed by trained groups backed by America and Israel, whereas the '57 Revolution was a movement driven entirely by mass public awareness.

A Comparison of Leadership, Goals, and Behaviour

The '57 Revolution

- ◆ Leaders: Thinkers and philosophers like Motahari and Beheshti.
- ◆ Goal: Independence and the pursuit of a Republic.
- ◆ Behaviour: Spirituality and logical dialogue.

1404 Terrorism

- Leaders: Illiterate celebrities and rappers.
- Goal: Return of foreign domination and monarchy.
- Behaviour: Savagery and debauchery.

The Enemy's Confession: What Was the Weapon of the Revolution?

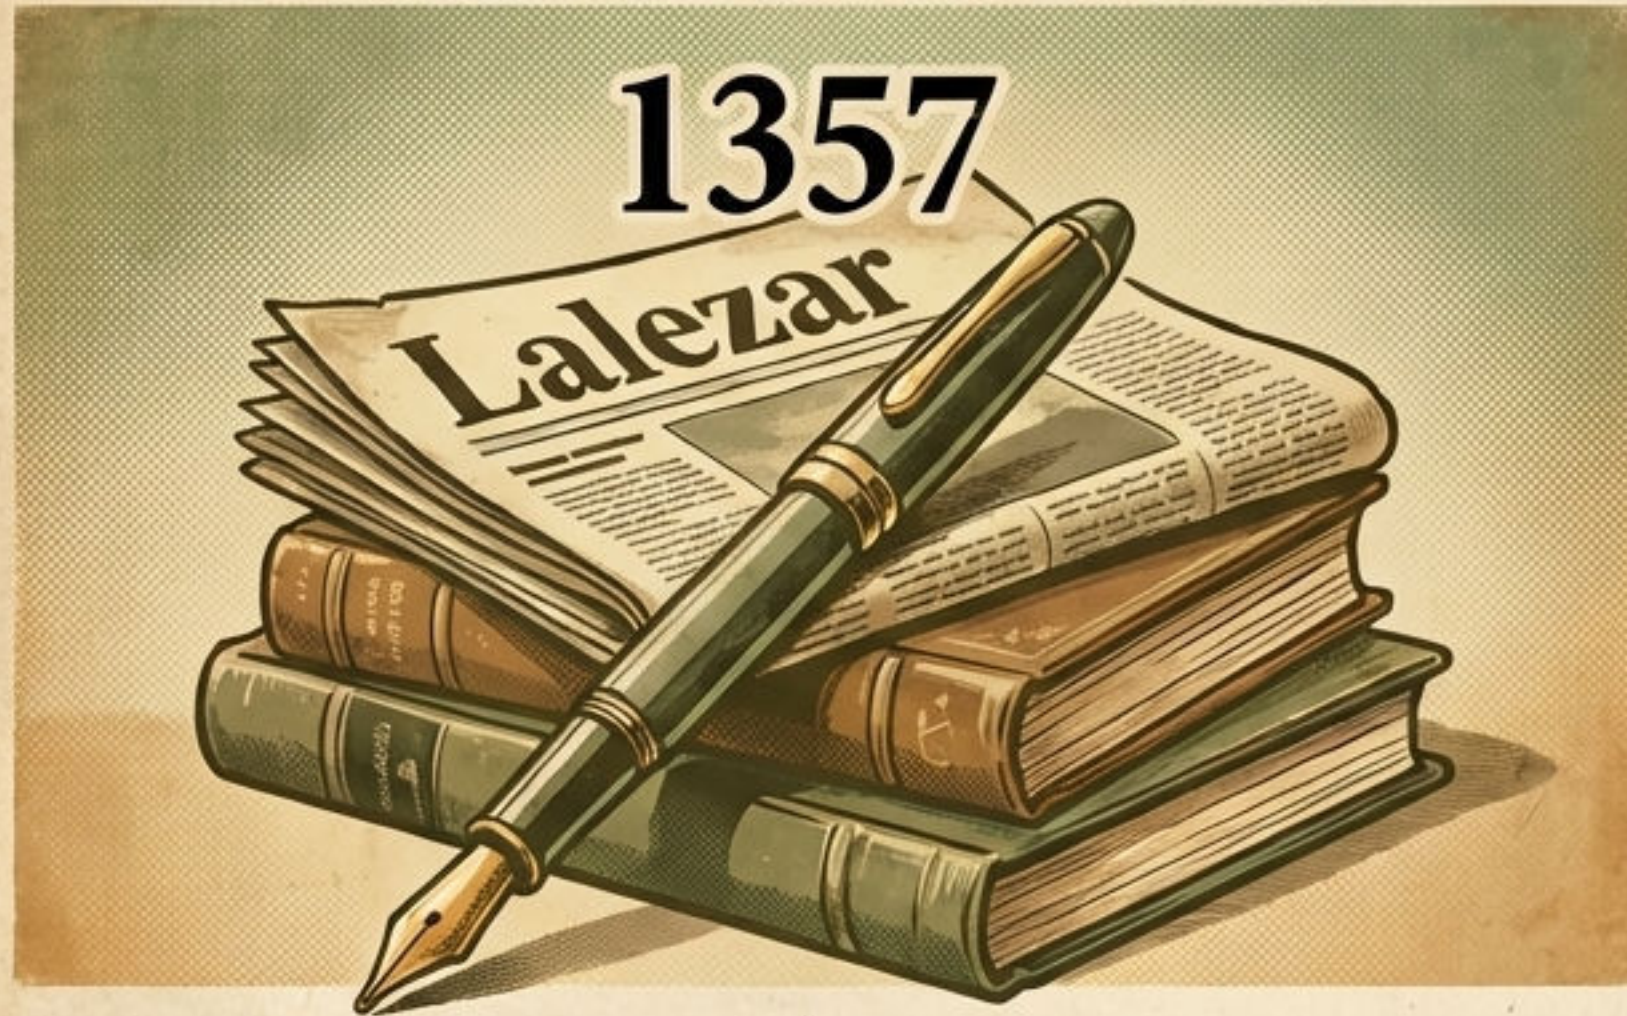

“Khomeini had no army; his true weapon was his cassette tapes, delivering his messages to a network of mosques.”

— TIME Magazine, 1979
(Upon selecting Imam Khomeini as Man of the Year)

While TIME Magazine often utilised highly critical language, it confessed to a profound historical truth: The '57 Revolution was a war of messages, not armies. In stark contrast, 1404 relies entirely on naked violence, making 'the word' its primary casualty.

Method of Struggle: Awareness vs. Chaos

My weapon is awareness.

When militant groups sought permission for armed struggle from the Imam, he refused. In a meeting with Martyr Araghi, pointing to newspapers and magazines, he stated: "This is my weapon."

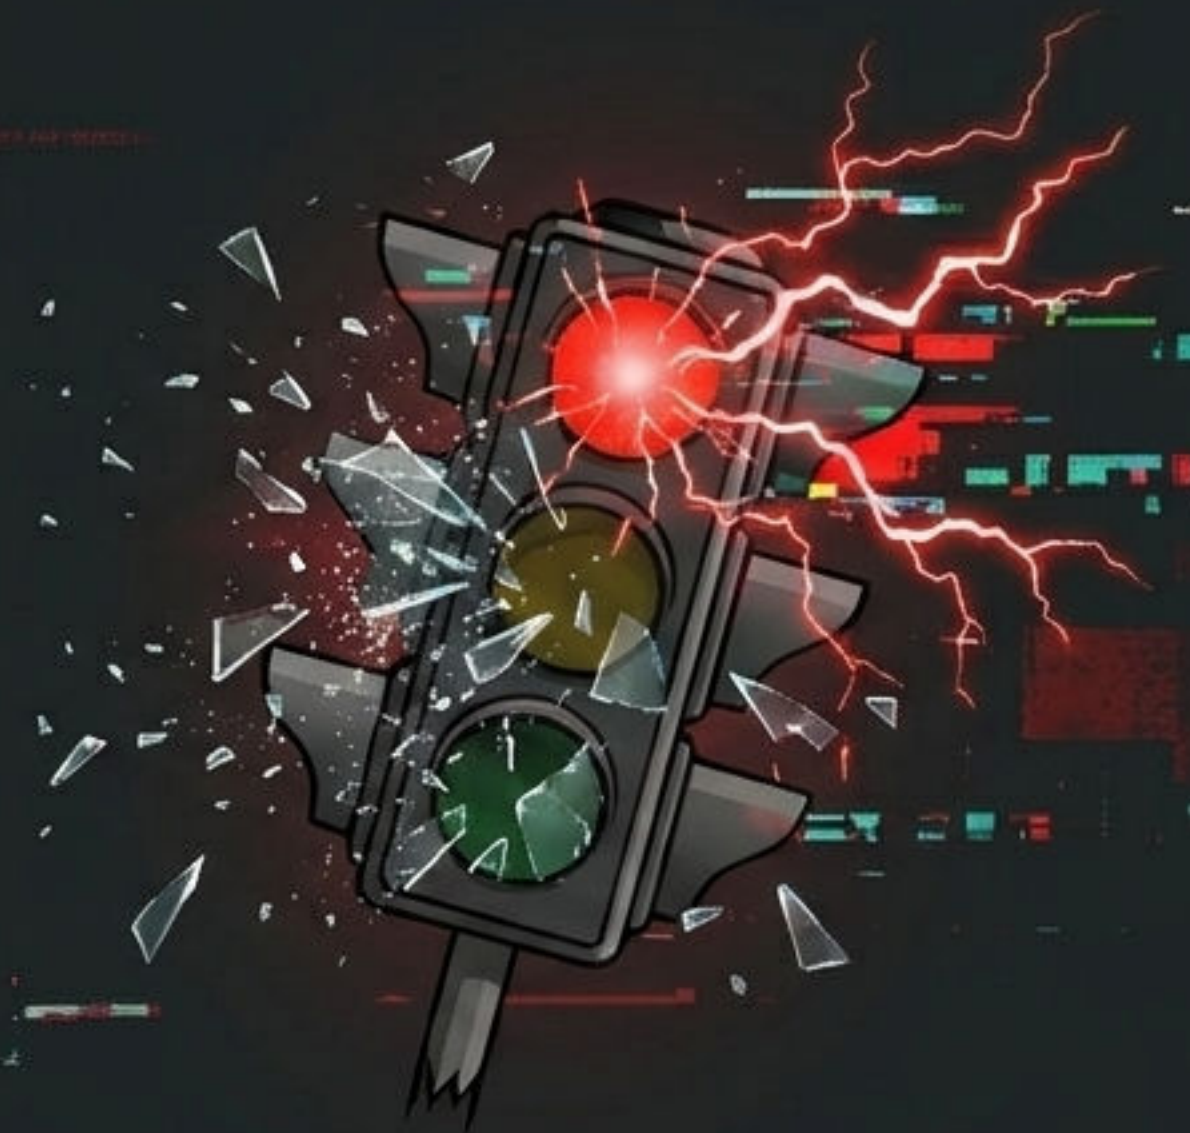

Their weapon is terror.

The primary strategy in 1404 is creating chaos and anarchy. Disrupting daily life—from traffic lights to ambulances and fire engines—is done solely to increase public suffering and enact political extortion.

Respect for the Law vs. Lawbreaking

At the absolute height of the '57 Revolution, Martyr Beheshti vehemently opposed any violation of driving and traffic laws (even running a red light), stating: "These are rational laws."

The 1404 terrorist acts are fundamentally built on the destruction of urban infrastructure. The goal is to paralyse the city and take the peace of the people hostage.

Treatment of Military Forces: A Flower or a Bullet?

1357

Imam's Strategy: "Leave the barracks"—encouraging soldiers to abandon posts, not fight them.

People's Behaviour: Gifting flowers to army personnel.

Barracks Attacks: Strictly limited to defending army factions that had already joined the people (e.g., the Air Force).

1404

Terrorist Strategy: Slaughtering police and law enforcement forces using ISIS-style methods.

The Bitter Reality: Terrorists behead people, while ordinary citizens continue to respect the police.

Targets of Destruction: Centres of Corruption vs. Public Property

The '57 Revolution

Targets: Liquor stores, casinos, and houses of corruption.

Fact: The destruction of banks was never endorsed by revolutionary leaders.

Fact: Leaders like Beheshti opposed even minor infractions like breaking traffic laws.

DECLASSIFIED

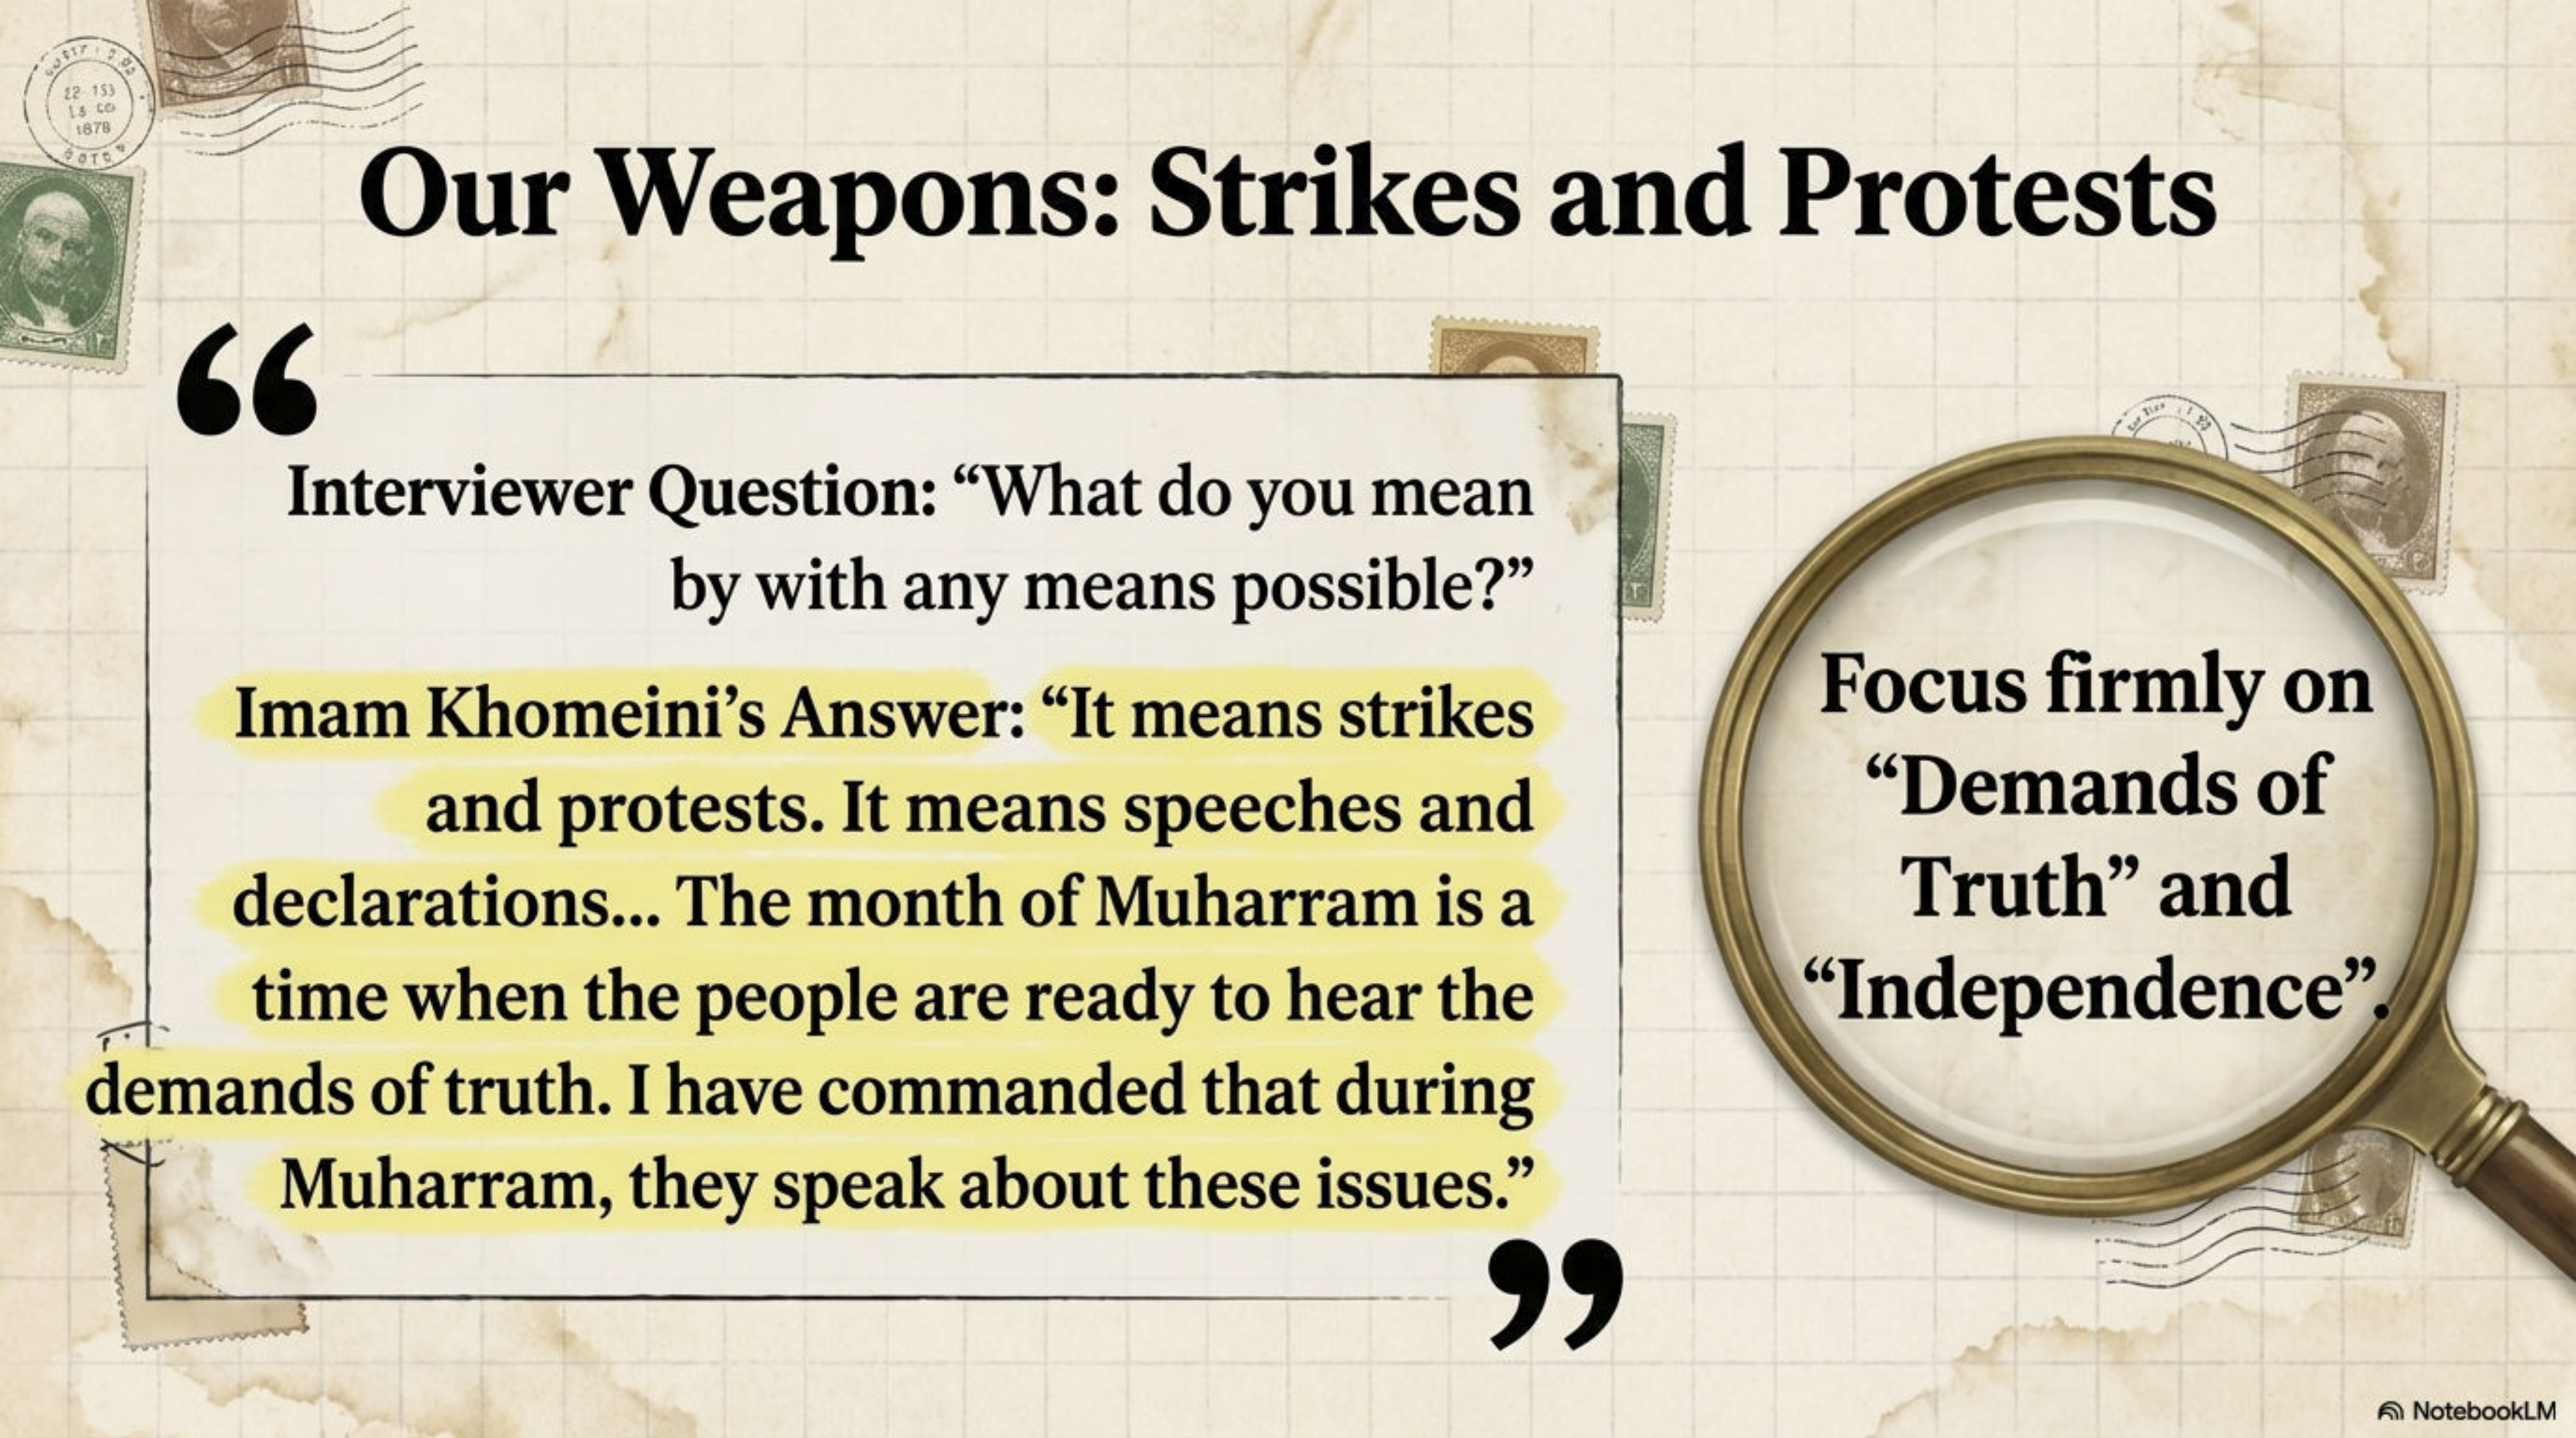

The 1404 Events

Targets: Religious sites, mourning halls, charities.

Targets: Public property (ambulances, traffic lights, fire engines).

Objective: Maximising public suffering and disrupting daily life.

Our Weapons: Strikes and Protests

Interviewer Question: “What do you mean by with any means possible?”

Imam Khomeini's Answer: “It means strikes and protests. It means speeches and declarations... The month of Muharram is a time when the people are ready to hear the demands of truth. I have commanded that during Muharram, they speak about these issues.”

Focus firmly on “Demands of Truth” and “Independence”.

Insistence on Peaceful Methods

Question: "If these peaceful methods do not yield results, will you issue an order to take up arms?"

Imam Khomeini's Answer: "We desire, as much as possible, for the work to be concluded peacefully.... but if we absolutely do not reach a result, it is possible that we may reconsider."

The Absolute Priority of the Revolution:
Concluding the work through "Peace," not internal warfare.

The Command to Preserve Property and Lives

Statement by the Combatant Clergy Association addressed to the people
(Read by Martyr Mofatteh) - 17th January 1979

“We request of you all... prevent any attacks on police stations, outposts, state and national institutions, and capture the agents and thwart the conspiracies that are designed to undermine your worthy movement.”

Archival Proof: Institutional Protection

Headline: "Notice from the Clergy Association to the People: Prevent any attacks on officers and institutions."

Date: Wednesday, 17th January 1979

Context: A historical record proving the movement's dedication to order and the protection of national infrastructure.

Ideals and Slogans: Transcendence vs. Nihilism

1979

Slogan of '57: Independence, Freedom, Islamic Republic. Rejection of domination and arrogance.

Core Foundation: The '57 Revolution was built on belief in God and the hereafter.

2026/1404

Slogan of 1404: Profanity, nihilism, and hedonism. The absolute absence of any transcendent ideal.

Core Foundation: Built entirely on debauchery and immorality.

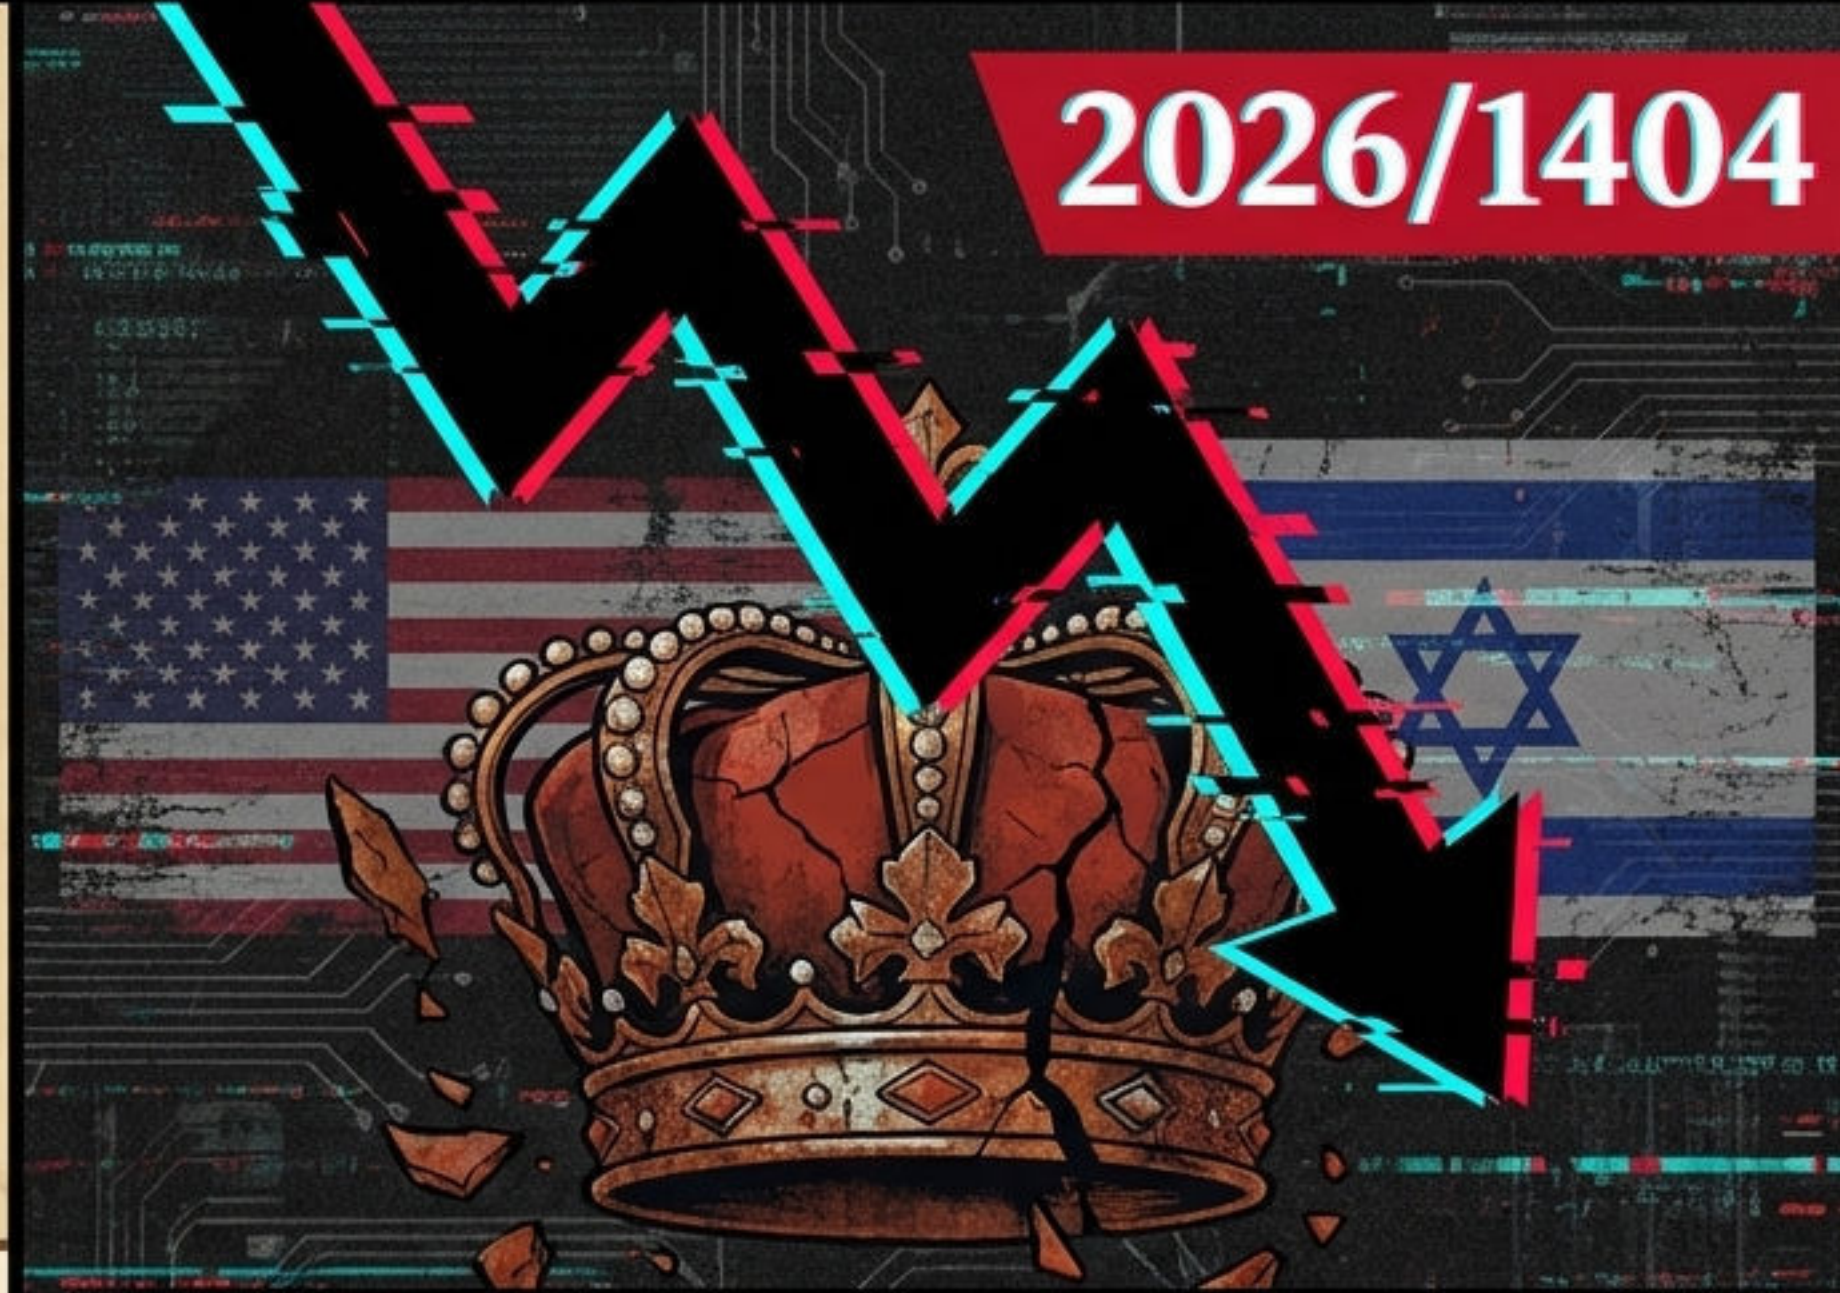

Political Goal: Republic vs. Monarchy

1979

Objective: Striving for a Republic and the sovereignty of the people's vote. Rejection of tyranny and monarchy. True demand for independence.

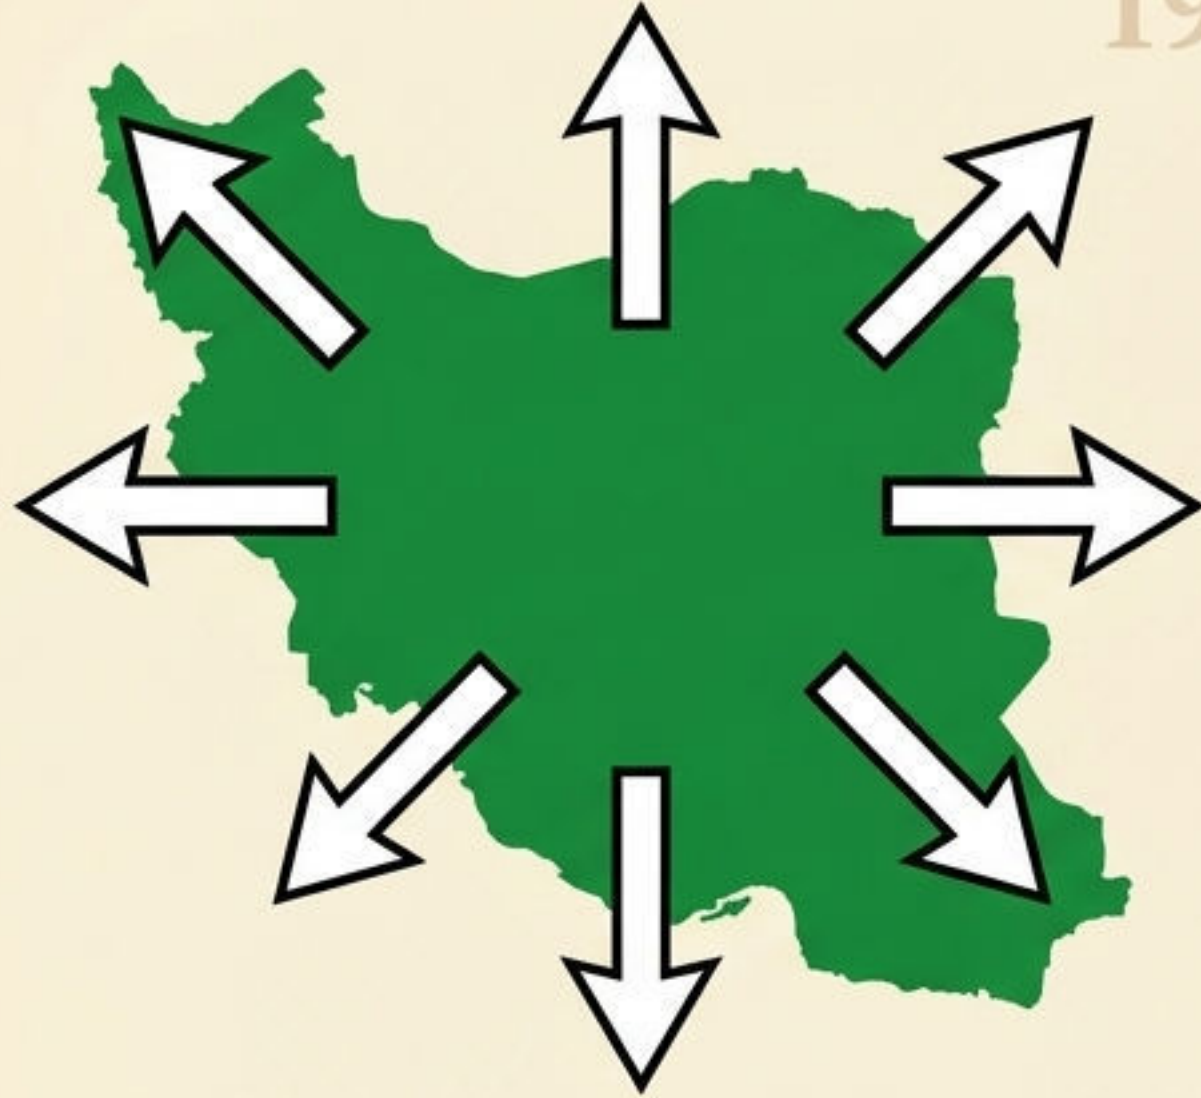

2026/1404

Objective: Striving for the return of a monarchy and the negation of the people's vote. Creating subordinate governments (like certain regional rulers) and returning foreign domination to the country.

Global Position: Independence vs. Dependency

1357: The World Against Us 1979

Reality: “All the enemies and oppressors of the world were against the revolution.”

Goal: The complete rejection of domination and global arrogance.

1404: The World With Them 2026/1404

Reality: “All the enemies and oppressors of the world are allied with them.”

Support: Training provided by America and Israel.

Goal: Returning foreign domination and partitioning Iran (as promised by leaders to Israel).

The Master Matrix: Qualitative Differences

Subject	The '57 Revolution	1404 Operations
Leadership	Scholar & Divine	Corrupt & Celebrity-driven
Objective	Independence & Republic	Partition & Foreign Domination
Method	Awareness & Dialogue	Violence & Destruction
Supporters	The People	America & Israel
Public Property	Protection	Arson

Conclusion: Repeating History or a Historical Caricature?

The data proves that the events of 1404 hold absolutely no resemblance to the '57 Revolution; they are in complete and total opposition to it.

BUILDING

'57 Revolution: Built on the foundation of independence and rationality.

DESTROYING

1404 Operations: Built on the foundation of dependency and base instincts.

The Role of the People: Where Do They Stand?

In the '57 Revolution, the people were the 'driving engine'." "In the 1404 terrorist operations, the people are treated merely as 'tools' and 'victims'." "The ultimate proof? The overwhelming opposition of this current movement against the Iranian nation itself.

Anatomy of Terror

- When the slogans are nihilistic...
- When the leaders are corrupt...
- When the supporters are the enemies of Iran...
- And when the method is purely 'arson'...

The name of this event is not a Revolution;
it is a terrorist operation and urban warfare.
